

International Competition Dialogue – Prague, CZ: Nový Hlavák (New Main Station District)

1. The parties:

CMC Architects a.s.
Jankovcova 1037/49
170 00 Prague 7, CZ

Hereafter CMCA

and

William Matthews Associates

169 Long Lane
London SE1 4PN, UK

Hereafter WMA

and

SWA Group

811 W. 7th Street
Los Angeles, California
90017- 3419, USA

Hereafter SWA

2. The Assignment:

The assignment consists of an international 'competition dialogue' to ultimately select five finalists, that would compete for the design and future construction of a transformed public space, and reconstructed main railway station hall in Prague, Czech Republic.

3. The Team:

CMCA + WMA + SWA will work together as a strategic team constellation for the Novy Hlavak competition dialogue, with CMC as the local urban design specialist, WMA as international architect and SWA as international landscape architects.

CMCA will bring all other local consultants (ie. Traffic/ Tram Engineers – SUDOP; Urban Space experts – FLERA)

4. Competition Dialogue and Responsibilities:

CMC + WMA + SWA are to discuss anticipated roles and responsibilities of each member of the team for the competition according to the deliverables required and timeline as set forth in the client-issued brief. The competition dialogue is seen as a joint competition proposal, and the parties commit to establishing an integrated collaborative team environment to encourage open, honest, and efficient sharing of information and ideas. This includes shared responsibilities between CMC + WMA + SWA for urban, public space, landscape strategies and conceptual design inputs, to be defined and designated at the onset of the competition process.

5. Exclusivity:

This agreement is considered to be an exclusive agreement, and as such the parties may not pursue the same assignment in another team constellation.

This Agreement records the understanding reached between the parties as at the date of this Agreement and the commitment and demonstration of good faith to one another in their forward work for the Novy Hlavak competition dialogue.

6. Mandate (Authorization)

WMA and SWA hereby confirm that CMCA, represented by David Richard Chisholm, may sign and submit the joint Application for Participation on behalf of all associated members.
