Depending on the browser used, there are two possible signature methods and choices of an electronic signature. None of these procedures makes it necessary to have an electronic signature.

In some cases (browser types) it is necessary to follow the individual steps described in Annex P28 of the Competition Conditions - Safe Submission Guide for the "Method of Signature" ("Metoda podpisu") window and mark the option „Send without signature“ („Odeslat bez podepsání“) and select the "Continue" („Pokračovat“) button.
