

This architectural floor plan shows a building layout with a central entrance and several rooms. The entrance is located in the center, featuring a set of double doors with a small porch area. To the left of the entrance is a large room, possibly a hall or a large office, with a door leading to a smaller room. To the right of the entrance is a long, narrow room, likely a corridor or a long office. The plan includes various rooms, corridors, and a central entrance area. The drawing is a technical architectural representation with lines indicating walls, doors, and furniture placement.

A photograph of a glass display cabinet filled with various packaged food items, including bags of snacks and boxes of instant noodles, arranged on shelves. The cabinet is set against a dark brick wall.
